WRCA

We have a large group from Utah that are planning to attend The Western Region Clown Association Convention. I think the largest group ever. For the theme party we have decided to go as a group as the "Pirates of the Carry a bean" thanks Flowers for such a great idea. We will be making beans at the October meeting. We have several long green noodles (the type that float in a swimming pool not the eating type). I found them on clearance and bought every one they had so we should have plenty for everyone that wants one. If you are not going to convention you can work on something else or just have fun helping make beans We need an exact count of how many want the pink pirate hats from Oriental Trading I will not order them till October. They will be 4 dollars each plus shipping
